PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the high spiritual and humanitarian principles of the Salvation Army have long been an important part of American life; and

WHEREAS, through its welfare and religious institutions in our cities and state, it has befriended, and given new hope to men, women and children, regardless of race or creed;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the period of November 26 through December 5, 1954, as in South Dakota, and do urge all citizens to give their full co-operation to this effort to focus attention upon the work of the Salvation Army that it has been carrying on in the United States of America for the past 75 years. Its banners and the principles for which it stands are mighty bulwarks against spiritual and physical need, and our tribute to this great organization during SALVATION ARMY WEEK is well earned and greatly merited.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 22nd day of November, 1954.
